

Door Prizes

1 Year
Subscriptions to:

Genealogy Event April 5, 2024

(This is a live event so timing may not be exact)

5:30 p.m. Marie Mattson, CG®

“Land Records: A Trail to Our Ancestors”

6:45 p.m. 15 minute break

7:00 p.m. Joanne M. Sher

*“Over Here While They Were Fighting Over There:
On the Home Front During World War I”*

8:15 p.m. Prizes & General Q & A

Where: Douglas County Historical Society, 1101 John Ave

Or use the QR Code

Register here: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/foolin-around-with-your-family-tree-2024-tickets-820198254057?utm-campaign=social&utm-content=attendeeshare&utm-medium=discovery&utm-term=listing&utm-source=cp&aff=ebdsshcopyurl>

A GROUP OF HANDOUTS AND ZOOM LINK WILL BE SENT TO YOUR EMAIL BEFORE THE EVENT.

Reserve Your FREE Spot Questions? email tree@douglaswigenealogy.org

Marie Mattson, CG®

“Land Records: A Trail to Our Ancestors”

Have you ever visited the BLM (Bureau of Land Management) website? Did any of your ancestors homestead or receive military bounty land? Learn how to navigate the website and see two case studies that relied on information from the BLM.

Joanne M. Sher

“Over Here While They Were Fighting Over There: On the Home Front During World War I”

While the Doughboys were fighting overseas what was happening at home? What activities were our ancestors involved in? What records can be found? This presentation will talk about those events, activities, and available resources. Add context to your family history by learning about this important part of U.S. history.